BRIEF NOTE ON ST. XAVIER’S COLLEGE, RANCHI

St. Xavier’s College Ranchi is a Minority Educational Institution based on religion affiliated to Ranchi University. The College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1944 with the primary objective of providing Higher Education in Christian atmosphere to all the deserving students with preferential option for the Christians, Schedule Tribe and Schedule Caste. It is established and administered by Ranchi Jesuit Province of the Society of Jesus. It is registered under the title ‘Xaviers Ranchi’ under the Society’s Registration Act XXI of 1860.

Principled on the motto “LUCENS ET ARDENS” which means ‘Spreading Light and Shining Bright’, St. Xavier’s College, Ranchi strives to groom intellectually competent, spiritually inspired, morally upright and socially committed citizens in the service of the nation.

St. Xavier’s College was conferred with autonomy in July 2005. It was re-accredited in 3rd cycle with grade A by National Assessment and Accreditation Council on January 2013. UGC conferred on the college the status of College with Potential for Excellence in 2015. After re-accreditation in 4th cycle with B+ by NAAC in May 2022 the Autonomy of the college has been withdrawn and now the College is an affiliated college of Ranchi University.

CLASS ROOMS
